Job Description

- Lead the Risk Management cell at EESL thereby identifying risks and developing mitigation strategies in coordination with various stakeholders
- Implement and maintain risk management framework across Enterprise risks Financial, Operational, Reputational, Technical, Legal, Political, Human Resource, Commercial, Safety and Security etc. in coordination with functional and business unit heads
- Analyse and evaluating data received from business functions
- Support the development of scenarios and appropriate risk response strategies and provide support to the functional and business heads in implementing response strategies as and when needed
- subject matter expert in risk management with deep functional expertise in the subject and working knowledge of all EESL projects.
- Supervise risk audits across the organization
- Raise awareness amongst employees in the company about key firm risks
- Provide ongoing updates to organizational leadership and the Board on key risks and their mitigation strategies on a periodic basis or as needed
- Basic people and team management skills including measuring and delivering performance feedback.